

River Trails Approved Eagle Projects

August 2004

Daniel Lomax (Troop 553): Constructed a 157-ft. retaining wall for the World Bird Sanctuary.

July 2004

Chris Parker (Troop 467): Parking lot resurfacing, re-striping, and handicap signage for the Zion Lutheran Church in Pevely.

Brett Bissell (Troop 992): Constructed the Robert Detrich memorial area with concrete benches for the Hillsboro School Administration Building.

Fred Kohut (Troop 430): Constructed an office for the Arnold Food Pantry in their new premises.

June 2004

No projects reported

May 2004

Greg Lee (Troop 430): Reconstructed a butterfly garden for the Rockport Elementary School.

Dennis Manning (Troop 430): Renovated and restored a nature trail for South Technical School to make it wheelchair accessible.

David Graves (Troop 407): Playground construction, expansion, and renovation for the Windsor School Center in Kimmswick.

Michael Pennington (Troop 430): Removed bushes and planted trees and flowers in an area for St. Mark's United Church of Christ.

Michael Palazzola (Troop 426): Constructed two mobile bookshelves/room dividers for the Head Start program in Hematite.

April 2004

Aaron Robert (Troop 450): Constructed a 90-foot retaining wall and landscaped the front of the bird hospital for the World Bird Sanctuary.

March 2004

No projects reported

February 2004

Jack Fancher (Troop 412): Constructed a large planter's box from sculptured stone to improve the appearance of the Lonedell Elementary School sign.

Jon Ortmann (Troop 407): Renovated the St. Pius X High School grounds by planting 30 trees, removing brush, and improved the condition of a large memorial garden.

Jason Steffens (Troop 461): Restored and reconditioned the medical helicopter landing pad for the High Ridge Elks Lodge.

Jason Yung (Troop 372): Constructed four large bird jump boxes to improve the living condition of birds for the World Bird Sanctuary.

River Trails Approved Eagle Projects

January 2004

Robert Meyers (Troop 372): Cleared a 637-foot section of a stream by removing dead trees, vines, brush, and barbed wire fence for George Guffey Elementary School.

Rodney Blase (Troop 992): Improved and cleaned a cemetery site by installing two benches, removing trash, and properly disposing of old American flags for Good Shepherd Parish.

Robert Springkamper III (Troop 461): Constructed a 12-foot circular raised keystone block planting and nature study area, filled it with soil and mulch, and installed an indian figure and bird feeders for High Ridge Elementary School.

December 2003

Andrew Schaefer (Troop 722): Constructed an outdoor classroom for High Ridge Elementary School.

Andrew Vollmar (Troop 891): Renovated an outdoor amphitheater for Athena Elementary School by landscaping the grounds, repairing the podium, and varnishing the benches.

Daniel Rowe (Troop 29): Erected a 30-foot flag pole for the House Spring Lion's Hall in memory of past president, Del Morris.

Geoffrey Allen (Troop 891): Composed, printed, and distributed over 900 medical information cards that are placed in homes for use by emergency personnel of the Valle Ambulance District.

November 2003

Kent Botkin (Troop 467): Installed shelving in a storage room for the Zion Lutheran Church in Pevely.

Nick Klaus (Troop 720): Distributed flyers requesting donations of reading and visual materials for the Jefferson County Library. The collection resulted in the donation of 5287 books and 107 VHS movies.

Jeremy Lammert (Troop 892): Repaired and improved the surface of a 350 ft. section of a hiking trail in Mastodon State Park.

Patrick Lockwood (Troop 426): Installed a parking lot fence and a flag pole, with a flag, for the Hematite Head Start Project.

Greg Mantle (Troop 722): Constructed a garden of native Missouri plants for the High Ridge Elementary School.

John Reece (Troop 407): Constructed eight benches for use in the lobby area for the Crystal City Elementary School.

Lestel Rushing (Troop 467): Replaced the handrail in the entryway to the First Baptist Church of Horine.

October 2003

David Myers (Troop 372): Constructed three large cages to protect eagles while recovering from injury for the World Bird Sanctuary.

Allen Hamilton (Troop 450): Painted and refurbished thirty fire hydrants for the Parkton subdivision in Imperial.

Nicholas Michalas (Troop 450): Constructed a bridge over a stream that leads to an outdoor classroom for Rockport Elementary School.

Brian Erlanger (Troop 29): Chose not to have his Eagle advancement displayed on the website.

Norman Wohlschlaeger (Troop 553): Constructed three picnic tables for use at an outdoor classroom for Our Lady Queen of Peace church in House Springs.

September 2003

Kevin Butler (Troop 426): Painted a flag pole, installed solar lighting equipment, and landscaped the surrounding area for the Pony Bird organization.

Matt Meyer (Troop 892): Constructed a section of the Spring Branch Nature Trail to make it accessible to handicapped and wheelchair bound persons for the Mastodon State Historic Site.

August 2003

Christopher Brinkley (Troop 535): Improved a nature trail by putting down wood chips, erecting benches and providing erosion control for the World Bird Sanctuary.

Travis Darian (Troop 407): Planned, built, and installed eight bat houses for VFW Post 3777 in Festus, MO.

Jordan Isringhaus (Troop 412): Constructed and installed an aluminum can recycling bin for the Ride On St. Louis Therapeutic Horsemanship organization.

July 2003

John Redel (Troop 553) Landscaped a flower bed for the House Springs Lions Hall.

Nathan Suter (Troop 450) Built a handicapped accessible trail in Mastodon State Park.

June 2003

Mark Corio (Troop 553): Replaced three bridges on a nature trail for the Cedar Hill Intermediate School.

William Magee (Troop 372): Constructed two new benches and repaired several existing benches along a trail in Mastodon State Park.

Matthew Wegescheide, Jr. (Troop 553): Constructed five "raised bed" gardens and an arbor that is handicapped accessible for the students of Cedar Spring Elementary School.

May 2003

Edward Mullich (Troop 890): Cleaned and restored the appearance of eight acres of land in Washington State Park by removing old fencing, removing trash, cutting brush, and trimming trees.

Tom Voss (Troop 535): Constructed and installed three large nursery houses and four Johnson Bat houses for the World Bird Sanctuary. (See additional project details on the web page)

April 2003

Jake Hertenstein (Post 2407): Construction of an ADA approved-concrete surfaced-handicapped accessible ramp to the second floor of the Crystal City Masonic Hall.

Jordan McGaughey (Troop 407): Excavation and replanting of ground cover and shrubs around the fountain of Grace Presbyterian Church.

Scott Stephens (Troop 407): Construction of 15 money collection boxes for the Habitat for Humanity organization.

March 2003

David Wendler (Troop 406)

February 2003

Frank Blair, IV (Troop 461): Constructed five special benches so that wheelchair-bound persons are able to maintain, groom, and care for the service dogs employed by the American Service Dog Association.

James Osterberg (Troop 426): Improved the appearance of five concrete islands in The Prairies area by cultivating and planting over 300 tulip bulbs and other perennial flower plants for the city of Herculaneum.

January 2003

Chad Czarnecki (550): Built four dog houses for the Jefferson County Humane Society.

Jeffrey Myers (550): Built and hung a series of bat houses for Mastodon State Park.

Joshua Wuertz (407): Renovated the Zion Lutheran Church (Pevely) pre-school playground by adding benches, weed barriers, and a new gravel surface.

December 2002

Ryan Graves (426): Improved the condition and appearance of an old cemetery.

Joe Hagerty (426): Restored the condition of the bleachers and fencing at the Twin City Little League ballpark.

Christopher Polley (890): Erected 120 feet of chainlink fencing for the Vineland Elementary School playground.

November 2002

Freeman Fouts (Troop 412): Constructed a wooden platform over a rough section of trail in Mastodon State Park.

James Buechting (Troop 482): Painted 20 fire hydrants for the city of Festus.

Jason Spitz (Troop 722): Repaired and renovated an outdoor classroom and improved the appearance of the entrance to the House Springs Intermediate School.

Garrett Ungerer (Troop 450): Constructed a large bird of prey cage for Lone Elk Park.

Aaron Fricke (Troop 890): Started the King's Closet Clothing Pantry to distribute donated clothing to needy families.

October 2002

Paul Crittenden: Planted trees and performed a general beautification of a Pevely city park.

Curtis Govro: Bench construction and installation and cleaning a Sunday School Trail for St. Martin's Church in Dittmer.

Nick Schumacher: Planted trees and cleared the trash and brush near the creek by Fox High School.